WELCOME

To the new season at The Exchange!

As the nights draw in and the temperature finally drops, autumn is the perfect time to come to our lovely warm venue and be..... terrified out of your wits! For Spooky Season is upon us! Not for the faint-hearted, there is something for everyone who dares to enter here - see page 4 -5 for more details!

Due to popular demand, we have a number of returning gigs featuring musicians who simply love to play here: Fairport Convention, Chris Difford, Nerina Pallot, and Horse to name a few. Plus, our ever-popular annual Wall To Wall George Michael returns, hosted by our wonderful artist in residence, Janette Mason. These shows guarantee a fab night out at half the price of what you'd pay in town, so please help us to keep music alive by booking early and donating where you can.

We also welcome back David Westhead and Stockard Channing whose stunning production of Krapp's Last Tape returns in October – book early to avoid disappointment! We are thrilled to launch a new National Theatre Live season that will include a captioned matinee screening for every title. Screenings wise, we look forward to yet another RFS World Cinema Season, plus our regular Baby Cinema and Family Film Club return. Comedy is on the menu with Ria Lina and Grace Petrie, and Marcus Brigstocke's Vitruvian Mango is the finale show for MENTalk, see below...

We have a brand new festival launching in our autumn calendar. In the lead up to Movember, the month that focuses on men's health, we are delighted to be hosting MENTalk, a weekend festival that explores the very urgent subject of men's and boys' mental health and wellbeing (page 14). Figures from the worlds of sport, business, entertainment, music and health will be participating in a mini festival of talks, debates, comedy, and performance. I would like to thank all those involved who have generously given their time for free to make this happen. Please be part of the conversation by booking your tickets now!

And finally, it's never too early to get into Christmas! We have a cracker of a season including music, theatre and film – something for everyone - ending in the climax that is our very own 'cheap-as-chips' Panto, Beauty and the Beast!

So please, I urge you, support your local arts and community venue by booking early and by telling all your friends and neighbours about us – we're here for you!

THIS SEASON

THE TEACHERS' LOUNGE (GERMANY)

16 September | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 38 m
When one of her students is suspected of theft, a dedicated young teacher resolves to get to the bottom of the matter but finds herself in conflict with her colleagues and the school system. A tense and uncompromising drama, the film was nominated for the 2024 Best International Feature Oscar.

MY FAVOURITE CAKE (IRAN)

30 September | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 37 m
When 70-year-old Mahin, lonely and widowed for 30 years, chooses to revive her love life, a chance encounter brings unpredictable surprises and memories. A charming and humorous film but one regarded as sufficiently subversive to incur the wrath of the Iranian authorities.

SMALL THINGS LIKE THESE (IRELAND)

14 October | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 38 m
In the lead up to Christmas 1985, devoted father Bill Furlong (Cillian Murphy) discovers disturbing secrets at the local convent. Faced with a conspiracy of silence, he finds himself torn between his personal and familial interests and the demands of his conscience. Another fine adaptation of a novella by Claire Keegan (Foster/The Quiet Girl), with outstanding performances, including from Emily Watson as the chilling Mother Superior.

HAPPYEND (JAPAN)

28 October | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 43 m
A highly allegorical coming-of-age story set in a near-future Tokyo. Living under the threat of a catastrophic earthquake, the government has exercised swingeing powers to impose societal controls. Two best friends about to graduate from high school find themselves under particular scrutiny after pulling a prank on the principal, who responds by imposing a surveillance regime. Caught between the oppressive security system and a darkening national political situation, the two respond in contrasting ways.

BRITISH BOARD OF FILM CLASSIFICATION PRESENTATION

4 November | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 30 m
An explanation and discussion of how films are classified by the BBFC, illustrated by multiple film clips. The presentation will be followed by a Q&A.

A REAL PAIN (USA)

11 November | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 30 m
In Jesse Eisenberg's comedy-drama, he and Kieran Culkin star as estranged and mismatched cousins who reunite for a Jewish heritage tour through Poland in honour of their late grandmother. Once on the road, they are soon reminded of why they no longer spend time together, as old tensions resurface. The film garnered 67 awards worldwide, including Kieran Culkin's Oscar for the Best Supporting Actor.

ALL WE IMAGINE AS LIGHT (INDIA)

25 November | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 46 m
The lives of three women, employees at a hospital in Mumbai, intersect and overlap in a haunting drama, as they grapple daily with the opportunities and hardships of life in the city and cope with the economic, religious and patriarchal limitations imposed upon them. Blending an immersive and realistic style with an element of the surreal, the film was critically acclaimed and won the 2024 Grand Prize at Cannes.

FOUR MOTHERS (IRELAND)

9 December | 8 pm | Running time: 1 h 30 m
A novelist, on the brink of literary success and under pressure to embark upon a US book tour, is forced to take care of three eccentric older women - together with his own mother - over the course of a chaotic weekend in Dublin. A comedy drama loosely based upon Gianni Di Gregorio's 2008 classic, Mid-August Lunch.
